

Global Missions

Chelten's missions family
locally and globally

2020-2021

Dear Chelten Family,

We have a missions-minded God. From the very beginning, after Adam and Eve sinned, we see God's heart on display as he moves toward his people in love to restore them to himself. God has continued to take the gracious initiative to rescue and redeem humans from their sin and bring them into his loving family forever. At the incarnation, the Son of God humbled himself and became human to seek and save the lost by laying down his life as an atonement for sin.

Today, God's great missionary commission continues today through the Church, God's Spirit-empowered representatives on earth. Although methods, audiences and destinations have changed over the centuries, the message of Jesus Christ has not. God has called his people to be his witnesses on earth, loving people through our actions and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all people. This includes your neighbors, coworkers and people you run into every day. This also includes people groups on the other side of the world who would otherwise never hear of Jesus Christ.

Chelten is privileged to join God in his mission in many ways. In this guide you will find information about various missionaries and ministries with whom Chelten is in relationship. Some are serving in our local community and others are spread around the globe. Some serve in evangelism, Christian education, or pastoral roles and others serve through ministries such as education, medicine or business.

No matter where or how they serve, all would acknowledge that this is an entire church effort. Your prayers, sacrificial giving and words of encouragement are all used by the Lord to further his kingdom here on earth. Thank you for your prayers and your partnership in the Gospel.

Chelten Missions

Colossians 4:2-6

²Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. ³And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. ⁴Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. ⁵Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. ⁶Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Chelten Prayer Guide

Chelten Missions Prayer Guide is a resource to help you become familiar with our mission families who are passionately seeking to make God known in diverse cultures around the globe. This tool is designed to be used as a prayer guide to present each family to God on a regular basis. Prayer is an essential ingredient to their spiritual growth and usefulness in the hands of God. Let's be a church who prays for the ones who represent us in other locations and cultures.

How to Pray for Missionaries

The missionary's own relationship to God (2 Peter 3:18)

- Pray that he/she will abide in Christ and feed on God's Word and for a deep prayer life.
- Pray for him/her to be filled with the Holy Spirit, not depending on their own efforts.

The missionary's physical & emotional life (2 Thess. 2:16-17)

- Pray for good health as they live and work in difficult climates where diseases are prevalent.
- Pray for safety. Travel is often hazardous, whether by air, bus, car or foot.
- Pray for deliverance from loneliness, discouragement and depression.
- Pray for the missionary's financial, physical, spiritual and emotional needs to be met.

Our Missionary Family

The missionary's family (Ephesians 5:21)

- Pray for a strong marriage and for wisdom in parenting.
- Pray for children's educational needs, safety and health and that they would grow to love the Lord.
- Pray for their family at home. Pray especially for the needs of elderly parents or children in college or those living on their own.

The missionary's ability to communicate (2 Timothy 4:2)

- Pray for ability to learn the language and understand the culture. Pray they will adapt to the culture.
- Pray for effectiveness in communicating the gospel.
- Pray for time and discipline to communicate with supporters and others at home.

The missionary's ministry (2 Thessalonians 3:1-3)

- Pray for open doors, boldness and empowerment by the Holy Spirit.
- Pray for discernment and understanding in decision making.
- Pray for effective use of time, and that God will show them where the harvest is ripe.

The missionary's interpersonal relationships (John 17:21)

- Pray for the missionary's relationship with fellow missionaries: for unity, grace and understanding.
- Pray for the missionary's relationship with national workers.
- Pray against Satan sowing the spirit of discord.

The missionary's country of service (Colossians 4:2-5)

- Pray for political stability and peace.
- Pray for its government and leaders.

TOM & NANCY TELFORD

United World Mission
501 Faith Dr, Lancaster, PA 17601
uwmacmc@aol.com

Tom's ministry involved mobilizing churches for effective involvement in world evangelization. He consulted with hundreds of churches helping them write policy and train members for missionary service. What he enjoyed most was training teams to lead their church in missions, while still consulting in missions.

How might the Lord use you to be a faithful witness of Christ to all peoples, here and to the ends of the earth?

The missions committee at Chelten exists to educate, equip and involve everyone in our church family in fulfilling Christ's command to make disciples of all nations. Talk with us today about your ideas, questions, and ways that God is leading you to grow his kingdom, from here to the ends of the earth! Contact a member of the mission's committee, there are so many ways to get more involved:

- Connect and pray specifically and directly for our Chelten supported missionaries
- Pray for the lost in our local community and around the world
- Love your neighbor through generous hospitality and speaking the Good News of Christ
- Participate in a short-term missions trip when available
- Consider God's call on your life to intentionally make disciples among the unreached
